

Manitowoc Crime Prevention Committee Meeting Minutes FEBRUARY 03, 2011

Present: Carol Behringer, Pamela Campbell, Collin Chase, Sgt. Bruce Jacobs, June Kramer, Ralph Kramer, Rick Ladwig, Rita Muench, Charles Rasmussen, Lynn Scheinoha, Cooper Schmidt, Wendy Smith, Dick Weber, Vicki Wetenkamp.

Vice -Chairperson Ralph Kramer called the meeting to order at 7:00 p. m.

Rasmussen made motion to accept Dec. Minutes. Muench seconded. Motion carried. (No Crime Prevention Committee Meeting held in January, therefore, no minutes.)

Muench made motion to accept Treasurer's Report. Scheinoha seconded. Motion carried.

There was no public input. Sgt. Jacobs explained that there will be another "Mock Robbery" Presentation to be given to employees at Associated Bank in the Spring. It may contain a quick change operation, along with a "mock robbery." As done in the past, information packets will be distributed, observations made, and re-calls to note accuracy will be discussed. Jacobs plans to schedule an event every three months, with next location possibly being Bank First National.

Sgt. Jacobs also planned to have Public Service Announcements on Anti-Bullying broadcast over WOMT Radio and published in Herald Times Reporter, per CPC recommendation during October 2010 meeting. He said that he has been too busy with DARE, TRIAD, Meetings, Presentations, and his new business venture, and hopes to do PSA soon.

SRO Activities included Rick Ladwig from Washington Junior High School. He spoke about incidents in school, such as, Bullying, Defiance, Disorderly Conduct, Loitering, Smoking, Theft, Truancy, and Vandalism. He stated that the majority of the students are orderly and well -behaved, however, some students become repeat violators of school rules and policies.

Sgt. Jacobs asked how to boost up attendance at meetings. Campbell indicated that involvement and participation are reasons that she joined the committee. Weber stated that sometimes people are too busy to get involved. J. Kramer agreed with Campbell, that a committee can only be as strong, as the participation of its members.

Sgt. Jacobs announced that Jim Behnke, Manitowoc Trophy, has been chosen as Citizen of the Year, Robert Block, Manitowoc City Police, has been chosen as Officer of the Year, and KOHLS has been chosen as Crime Prevention Business of the Year. Presentation of Award for KOHLS is scheduled for April 2011.

Please plan to attend Thursday, March 03, 2011 CPC meeting for ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND CPC IDENTIFICATION BADGE PHOTOS to be taken.

Seeing no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
June Kramer, Secretary
