Stoeger reported on the following:

The annual July Crazy Daze book sale turned out a record number in attendance and the highest sales ever, totaling $3,975.86.

The City Department Heads are working to develop a work group similar to CAWG to make recommendations to the Mayor regarding personnel needs in 2018.

The Virtual Library Card roll out has been delayed due to staffing changes at MPSD. This project should be completed by the end of September.

The MPL Foundation has agreed to fund the Mural project in 2018. Also, plans are underway for the March 10, 2018 Gala. More details will follow.

During the month of July members of the LeapFrog Committee attended a Farmer's Market to capture non-user input into the first floor re-design and what elements might compel them to come back to the library. Also, we have received layout plans from two companies. Members from the Design Committee will be at the September board meeting sharing some of the things they have been working on.
