

Ryan Jacoby, Roncalli High School, Junior

I joined the Mayor's Youth Action Council because I want to be more involved in my community and provide help where there is a need for it.

What I hope to accomplish by being in this group is, to the best of my ability, represent other students like me and give them a voice that can be heard and listened to.